

#MASKUPSODAK

We live in rural America, in small towns and we know our neighbors. They are our friends, family and co-workers. They are our teachers, doctors, nurses and the teller at the bank or cashier at the grocery store. Wearing a mask, washing your hands and staying six feet apart shows you care.

We take care of our communities by taking care of one another.

